Dear Madam Speaker, Senators McConnell and Schumer and Representative McCarthy,

On behalf of the Major County Sheriffs of America (MCSA), National Sheriffs' Association (NSA), and National Association of Counties (NACo), we write to urge you to consider including a provision in the next coronavirus relief package to allow Medicaid to cover health services in the last thirty days before an individual is released from prison or jail.

The Medicaid Inmate Exclusion Policy (MIEP) prohibits the use of federal funds and services for medical care provided to inmates of public institutions. The MIEP negatively impacts rehabilitation outcomes and puts a financial strain on county budgets, especially during the COVID-19 emergency. With approximately 40 percent of jail inmates having a chronic medical condition and 63 percent having a substance use disorder¹, the MIEP leads to an interruption in access to needed medical, mental health, and addiction treatment, which results in poorer health outcomes, ultimately driving up recidivism rates.

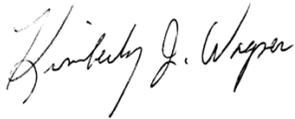

The Health and Economic Recovery Omnibus Emergency Solutions (HEROES) Act (H.R. 6800) includes a proposal to allow Medicaid to cover health services in the last thirty days before an individual is released from prison or jail. This provision would strengthen local agencies' ability to connect people to critical healthcare as they leave incarceration, advancing connections to coronavirus testing and treatment and other services needed to protect their health, and ultimately the health of the community.

Including this language in the next COVID-19 response package would take an important step toward improving health outcomes for incarcerated individuals, reducing recidivism, and restoring the federal, state, and local partnership in delivering safety-net benefits.

Thank you for your consideration and continued commitment to addressing the needs of local communities as we work to protect our residents during the coronavirus pandemic. If we can be of any assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us directly.

Sincerely,
